

Alexandria Nunweiler's piece Rootbound uses music composed by Jonathan Posthuma. Jonathan brings Paul Klee's paintings to life through music. The track for Alex's piece is inspired the painting above.

Bloom Program

Alive Dance Collective members feel most alive when dancing. Jonathan feels most alive when composing. It stands to reason that Paul Klee felt most alive when painting. We want to know: when do you feel most alive? How will you represent that on the back of this page?

How will you be inspired by Paul Klee?

How will you represent what makes you feel alive?

Tag us @alivedancecollective